Says He Never Gave $70,000 to Either Wilson of La Follette Contest Funds

WASHINGTON, Oct. 7. — A straight issue of veracity was raised today before the Clapp committee investigating campaign contributions, regarding the story that J. P Morgan was asked for more money by President Roosevelt in 1904 and called Roosevelt a "blankety-blank maniac," or some other complimentary name. The whole affair was "put up to Wayne MacVeagh," who has previously denied he was the source of the tale. Morgan said it "was made out of whole cloth."

Charles Edward Russell, socialist candidate for governor of New York, told the committee today that he was told the story by Judson M. Welliver, a reporter for Hampton's Magazine, and the Munsey publications. Welliver, who was at the press table reporting the hearing, immediately demanded to be sworn.

He insisted the tale was substantially correct and that he got it all from MacVeagh. Senator Clapp said MacVeagh will be summoned immediately. This afternoon Ogden Mills of New York and former Senator Nathan B. Scott of West Virginia awaited examination.

Colonel John J. Hannan, secretary of Senator La Follette, today submitted to the committee a statement of La Follete's pre-convention receipts and expenses. Total receipts were $63,965 and expenses $63,961. To La Follette's fund, Gifford Pinchot gave $10,000; Amos Pinchot, $10,000; Representative Kent of California, $10,000; Charles R. Crane of Chicago, $23,000; Alfred L. Baker, $2,000; William Flinn, $1,000; E. A. Scripps, $450; Rudolph Spreckles, $3,000, and Mrs. Glendower Evans, $276. Medill McCormick loaned La Follette $1,000 and Senator Gronna $500. La Follette spent $1,500 himself. La Follette's expenses were $10,817 for the Washington headquarters; $10,450 for the Chicago headquarters, $1,651 for telegraph and telephone; $1,558 at the Chicago convention, and $1,200 for campaign expenses.

Louis Hammerling was called as the first witness today. He said T. R. spent $5,500 for advertising before the convention this year.

Colonel Hannan, La Follette's secretary, followed Hammerling and presented La Follette's accounts. Hannan said Charles R. Crane had given $3,184 additional to the Chicago headquarters of La Follette, making Crane's total contribution to La Follette's cause $26,684.

"The expenses of the California campaign," said Hannan, "were largely paid by Rudolph Spreckles, who also gave $2,500 to La Follette personally and $400 was received from another San Francisco man whom I do not know."

Crane Denies $70,000

Charles R. Crane followed Hannan on the witness stand. Crane said he gave $26,684,40 to La Follette's campaign.

"Is that all you gave directly or indirectly?"

"Yes, sir."

"How much did you give to Governor Wilson?"

"Ten thousand," said Crane, "in two contributions—one on March 28 and another April 30."

Crane's attention was then called to Hooker's testimony that he, Crane, told Hooker that he had given $70,000 each to the La Follette and Wilson campaigns."

"I never had such a conversation," said Crane. "I talked with him, but never told him I gave any such sums."

In connection with his testimony, Crane made the following statement:

"My contribution to the Wilson fund was made after it had become apparent that La Follette probably could not be nominated. I desired to see a progressive nominated and elected president," continued Crane. "I could very well support both Wilson and La Follette, as both men are progressives. That I was contributing to both the Wilson and La Follette funds, was known to the managers of the two campaigns. I made no secret of the fact.

Long a Progressive

"I have been in sympathy with the progressive movement for many years.

Crane said he gave about $5,000 a month to La Follette. "I was willing to give as much to each candidate," said Crane. "Hooker was around to get money for his progressive candidate. He thought he might as well come in."

Crane gave no money to the bull mose fund.

Ogden Mills was called when the Clapp committee resumed at 1:40 p. m.

"FEE" IS NEARLY FATAL TO JUDGE

LAWRENCEBURG, Ind., Oct. 7.—"A fee" presented in police court nearly proved fatal to Magistrate John W. Probst, 78. James W. Flinn, a traveling horse trader, traded an old horse for a large Rhesus monkey and a galon of whiskey. with a tribe of wanderers Flinn tried to consume the liquor, then wanted to "clean up" on everybody he met. Flinn was arrested and pleaded guilty before Magistrate Probst. He was fined $25 and costs but being without money offered the monkey and a buggy as payment for the fine.

The magistrate placed the monkey in a cage and while feeding it it attacked him. He was badly bitten, but managed to kill the animal with a heavy stick.

LA CROSSE GETS A NEW FACTORY

A. B. Smith of Minneapolis to Manufacture New Type of Washing Machine Here

GET SOAP FACTORY BUILDING

Assistance of Wm. Doerflinger Secures the Old Schilling Plant for New Firm

Negotiations which have been carried on for more than three months between J. L. Utermoehl, secretary of the board of trade and the La Crosse Industrial association and Mr. A. B. Smith, a Minneapolis manufacturer, were completed today for the establishment of a new manufacturing plant in La Crosse. The deal was consummated with the assistance of William Doerflinger, who bought the old soap factory property at the foot of Market street and agreed to turn it over to the use of the new company at a nominal rate. The company also obtains the option on the property and will take it over as soon as the business is firmly established.

Makes Washing Machines

The new company will manufacture a washing machine which was invented and patented by Mr. Smith. He has been engaged in the washing machine manufacturing business for several years and the machine which will be made here is the result of many years of experiment in this line. The new company, which will be called the Woman's Faultless Washer company, will be incorporated under the laws of Wisconsin in the near future and will move into the building next week. It is expected that about twenty-five men will be employed at the plant at the start and that this number will be more than doubled before the end of next year. It is the prediction of Secretary Utermoehl that at least 150 men will be employed within three years.

A stock company is to be incorporated with the greater part of the capital to be invested by Mr. Smith and his son, who is associated with him in the Twentieth Century Brass Works company in Minneapolis. Mr. J. A. Volkman of Minneapolis will be the superintendent of the plant. Mr. Smith will be the sales manager of the new company until he disposes of his business in Minneapolis when he will take over the entire management of the industry.

Demand is Big

The machine which will be manufactured here can be run by hand, water or electric power and is an automatic combination of washer and wringer. A short article which appeared in the Electrical Review recently describing the invention resulted in a flood of inquiries from all parts of this country. Many promoters desired to know if the patent was for sale and others wanted to know when the machine will be placed on the market. The manufacturers are confident that the machine will sell as fast as it can be manufactured. The first one made in La Crosse will be placed on exhibition in the Doerflinger store windows.

The work of repairing and improving the building which was purchased from I. Schilling for the plant will be begun at once and it is expected that the wheels of the new industry will start within a month.

Secretary Utermoehl is now negotiating with another industry which desires to locate in La Crosse but the name of the prospective firm has not been announced. It is expected, however, that the matter of site and a few minor details will be successfully negotiated in the near future, insuring another plant to La Crosse.

REPEAT SAN DIEGO SYSTEM

LAWRENCE, Mass., Oct. 7.—Numerous street fights between industrial Workers of the World and anti-I. W. W.'s occurred here as a result of the feeling which has been aroused against the industrial organization through citizens' mass meetings which have denounced the parade in which red and black banners, but no American flags were carried several days last week. The situation here is critical and citizens today declared they will form a vigilantes committee like that at San Diego, Cal., and try to drive the I. W. W. leaders from Lawrence.

LA CROSSE MAKES LARGEST GAINS

Other Contenders in Y. M. C. A. Race Are Near Their Limit Today

Standings.

	Total.	Gain.
Fond du Lac	452	8
Eau Claire	428	54
La Crosse	377	68
Wausau	318	34

With La Crosse showing greater gains than any of its three competitors, the four cornered contest for Y. M. C. A. members continued merrily today. At the present rate La Crosse will soon be at the head of the list, as according to all the dope the other associations in the race have made their big showing. Already they are reporting fewer gains each day.

Fond du Lac is nearly up to its limit, and cannot write many more new members. Eau Claire, La Crosse's real rival, is also nearly at the end of its string. Its total membership last year was but 540, and within a few days they will have reached this mark.

La Crosse, however, has 190 renewals in reserve, which are regarded as practically certain. These will be in within the next few days, and the local association will take a big jump into the lead.

PITTSBURG, Pa., Oct. 7.—"Big Jim" Thorpe, champion athlete and mainstay of the Carlisle Indian football team, today is nursing a few bruises which he did not get in Saturday's game with Washington and Jefferson, although he got a severe enough roughing in the nothing-nothing game.

Saturday night Thorpe broke training at the Seventh Avenue hotel and when Coach Warner found him in the bar-room, a pretty fist fight followed, the coach winning a knockout. Thorpe, flanked by the balance of the team, was carefully guarded until placed aboard the train for Carlisle at Union station.

EUGENE PERKINS DIES SUDDENLY

Superintendent of Southern Minnesota Division of Milwaukee Road Is Stricken

WIFE FINDS HIM DYING

From Brakeman to Superintendent Remarkable Career; Prominent in Politics

Eugene G. Perkins, superintendent of the Southern Minnesota division of the Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul railroad, died at his home, 225 South Seventh street, at 11:30 Saturday night. He had just retired after having returned from the Majestic theater, when he was stricken with apoplexy, dying. a few moments later.

Mr. Perkins, who has held various positions of importance with the C. M. & St. P. railroad during the last forty-six years, had complained of severe headaches during the last few days but early Saturday evening declared that he was feeling in the best of health. Upon his return from the theater he retired to his sleeping apartment on the porch.

Wife Finds Him Dying

A few moments later his wife was aroused by hearing him complain of being warm and hurrying to his side, found him dying. Dr. Friend C. Suiter was called but found Mr. Perkins beyond human assistance.

Mr.Perkins, who is sixty-four years old, was born in New York state. When a child his parents migrated westward finally settling at Houston, Minn., where he grew to manhood. Long before he reached maturity, Mr. Perkins became an employe of the Southern Minnesota railroad, serving in the capacity of freight brakeman.

Hard and attentive work resulted in his early realization of his boyhood ambition to become a passenger conductor. His next advancement was to the position of station master of the C. M. & St. P. station at Milwaukee, after the Southern Minnesota had been taken over by that road and made a division.

Wins Rapid Promotion

Shortly after he was transferred back to the Southern Minnesota division, taking up the dutie sof trainmaster. He became trainmaster of the River and Chippewa division later, in which capacity he served until he was again returned to the Southern Minnesota division as trainmaster, at his own request. He held this position until three and one-half years ago when he was selected as superintendent of the division.

During his long railroad career, Mr. Perkins was associated with several of today's greatest railroad men, among whom are: W. R. Williams, president of the coast extension; D. L. Rush, general manager of the coast extension, and Fred D. Underwood, president of the rie railroad. Mr. Perkins was at one time a member of the La Crosse board of education and has always been identified with western Wisconsin politics. He was one of the conservative wing of the republican party.

Mr. Perkins leaves a widow and three sons, Willis D. Perkins of Sudden, Cal.; Captain George T. Perkins of Fort Adams, and Robert Perkins, La Crosse. He is also survived by two brothers, Darius of Huron, S. D., and Edgar of Bertha, Minn.

The funeral services will be held at the Congregational church at 4 o'clock Friday afternoon. Rev. Henry Faville will officiate and burial will be made in Oak Grove cemetery.

CHANGES PLEA TO GUILTY IN TRIAL

Dynamite Case Defendant Confesses to Charges Made by the State Against Him

SAY OTHERS WILL FOLLOW

Prosecution Declares More Iron-workers Will Weaken and Admit Guilt

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., Oct. 7.—Edward Clark, Cincinnati business agent of the ironworkers, today changed his plea from not guilty to guilty when the dynamite conspiracy trial was resumed.

When court opened it was noticed that Clark took a seat beside Marshal Schmidt at the right of Judge Anderson, instead of sitting with his fellows, and there was an air of tense expectancy among the defendants.

"A defendant who has pleaded not guilty wishes to change his plea to guilty," said District Attorney Miller.

"Let him stand up," ordered Judge Anderson.

Target of Scowls

With his gray head hanging and his hands convulsively clasping and unclasping, Clark stood up, the target for a battery of scowls and mutterings from the other defendants.

"How do you plead?" the court demanded.

"Guilty," said Clark, in a trembling whisper.

Sentence was deferred and Clark joined McManigal in the marshal's office, leaving forty-seven defendants in the courtroom.

The action of Clark came as a complete surprise to the defense, and Miller smiled at the defense counsel table with a distinct air of having put one over.

The defense attorneys were positive that Clark's change of front was not brought about by Miller's denunciation of Hockin as a double-crosser, but was the result of the district attorney's strong arraignment of Clark himself. Miller told a circumstantial story of Clark's leadership in twelve dynamite explosions in and about Cleveland. He also said that Clark, single-handed, blew up a bridge at Dayton, Ohio.

Say Others Will Follow

The surrender of Clark caused such a flutter among the defendants that little attention was paid to Miller's continued statement. The government freely predicted that others of the ironworkers would follow Clark's example. Counsel for the defense, however, were positive that there would be no more pleas of guilty.

PAROLED FORGER ARRESTED HERE

Former Resident of La Crosse Charged with Forging After Parole Is Apprehended

Jake Scharpf, arrested here Saturday night, was turned over to prison authorities of Stillwater this morning. Scharpf, who is a former resident of La Crosse, was paroled last March after serving part of a prison sentence at Stillwater, Minn., and immediately broke his parole by leaving the state. La Crosse police were notified at that time but found no trace of him until Saturday night, when he was placed under arrest by Captain Dugan. The police pension fund was increased by $25, the reward offered for his arrest. Scharpf was sentenced to the Minnesota reformatory at St. Cloud several years ago for forgery but was later transferred to the state prison at Stillwater owing to trouble at the reformatory in which he became entangled.

Scharpf forged checks in La Crosse and later in St. Paul and finally was arrested in Montana. Both states claimed him for purposes of prosecution but it was finally decided to give him to the Minnesota authorities. Two months after his parole he was again accused of forging but made good his escape at that time.

AX-WOMAN TRIED FOR 17 MURDERS

LAFAYETTE, La., Oct. 7.—The strange case of Clementine Barnabet, the Creole ax woman, who has confessed to having murdered seventeen persons as a part of the ritual of her church, was called here today. The woman is specifically charged with the murder of five. The heads of all of the victims were crushed with an ax.

The defense today declared they would make a plea of religious insanity in the hope of saving their client's life. All of the woman's victims were negroes. When captured she said the persons were killed as "sacrifices" to the church.

"I do not care what they do with me—they can hang me if they wish," the accused said today.

FIGHT GIVING UP VICE REPORT KEY

Compilers of Chicago Report Object to Divulging Names of Resort Property Owners

WOMEN LEAVE THE DISTRICT

Campaign Causes Inmates to Flock Into Residential Section Is the Complaint

CHICAGO, Oct. 7.—The fight of the state's attorney to gain possession of the "key" to the vice report which was compiled two years ago at a cost to the city of $60,000, was put over until Octover 12, when Edwin Sims and Dean W. T. Sumner appeared before Judge Cottrell, to protest against making the explanation to the vice report public. At the same time Judge Hopkins in the criminal branch of the municipal court postponed the hearing of the charges against Harrison B. Riley, president, and Justin M. Dall, secretary of the Chicago Titie and Trust company, who are alleged to have rented property which their corporation held as trustees, for immoral purposes. Judge Hopkins set October 15 for the hearing.

Would Break Pledge

The chief objection to giving up the report explanation was on account of the pledge of secrecy made by Dean Sumner and the other investigators at the time the information was gathered. Dean Sumner told the court that much of the secret information was mixed in the report with the evidence which they are willing to give up, and that they could not give up the "key" without violating the confidence of their informants.

Spurning the offer of Miss Kate Adams, formerly secretary to Police Chief Stuward to furnish every woman inmate of the closed vice resorts with a home, girls and women of the vice district today sought new homes in every residence section of the city. Cheap hotels, boarding houses, flats and residences were sought by the women who have been driven from the segregated districts, many of whom have forgotten how to work for a living.

Numerous complaints were made to the police of the invasion of the residence sections by the women whose garb and appearance stamp them as refugees from their former homes. The police were unable to take any action and said they could not molest the women as long as their behavior was such that no violation of the law was apparent. Many of the women have departed for other cities to wait, as they themselves expressed it, "until the storm blows over."

Offer Shelterage

Miss Adams invited all the outcast girls and women to come to the "Lifeboat home, Beulah home, and the Florence Crittenden Anchorage." She said she was assured of financial support sufficient to care for everyone of the hundreds of women who have been turned adrift by the crusade against segregated vice ristricts.

State's Attorney Wayman this afternoon changed his tactics in the vice crusade and ordered that no more raids be made upon resorts in the tenderloin. He said no more action would be directed against the women inmates of these resorts, but that every man who entered one of the places would be arrested and prosecuted.

FEAR ATTEMPT TO FREE PRISONERS

Fifty-two Unionists on Trial for Death of Man Closely Guarded by the State

LAKE CHARLES, La., Oct. 7.—When the trial of the fifty-two members of the Brotherhood of Timber Workers, charged with murder and rioting, was called here today, every precaution had been taken to prevent an outbreak. Armed deputies patrolled the streets throughout last night and today, and it was feared an eleventh hour attempt to liberate the accused men might be made.

On July 17 a riot followed a demonstration of the striking employes of the Galloway Lumber company at Gabrow. Shots were fired, and a laborer known as "Tony" not affiliated with the strikers, was killed. Five strikers were later killed, and fifty wounded. The fifty-two men placed on trial today were arrested, charged with the murder of "Tony."

Two hundred witnesses have been summoned.

WILSON'S CAR IS NEAR SMASH-UP

Governor Sleeps Through Crash that Rips His Speaking Platform Off

OMAHA, Neb., Oct. 7.—While running sixty miles an hour just east of Cedar Rapids, about two o'clock a. m. Saturday, Gov. Wilson's private car Federal side-swiped a freight car in a train running about forty miles an hour in the opposite direction on the other track of the Northwestern.

There was a loud crash and the jar of splintered glass, but the engineer ignorant of the accident, sped on. Trainmen found the front end of the Pullman next to the Federal caved in and its windows broken and the guard rail of the governor's car torn off. The observation platform, from which the candidate delivers speeches was a wreck.

Gov. Wilson slumbered peacefully through the whole thing.

BECKER TRIAL IS BEGUN IN GOTHAM

Police Lieutenant Accused of Causing Rosenthal Murder Is Arraigned

NEW YORK, Oct. 7.—"Charles Becker to the bar."

When these words are droned out by the clerk of the criminal term of the supreme court today there will start what promises to be the most bitterly contested and sensational murder trial in the recent history of New York. The accused, a lieutenant of police, is directly charged with instigating the murder of a gambler, Herman Rosenthal, because the latter "squealed" to the district attorney and ended graft collecting.

A panel of 250 especially drawn jurors has been selected. Both sides announced their readines to proceed.

District Attorney Whitman declared today that he had no doubt of a conviction.

As a motive for the murder he plans to establish by independent evidence that Becker had been collecting graft from a score of gambling houses, and granting them immunity.

During the trial the black history of the under world is to be uncovered and disclosures made of a character only heretofore hinted at.

Former Assistant District Attorney John A. McIntyre declared that he will gain the acquittal of his client. He will endeavor to show that Vallon, Rose and Webber, with men whose identity is unknown, planned the murder of Rosenthal to discredit Becker.

The shortest estimate of the time the trial will consume is one month.

REV. MAGIN TO LEAVE LA CROSSE

Pastor of First Methodist Church Promoted to Pastorate in Minneapolis

FAITHFUL SERVICE REWARDED

Succeeded in La Crosse by Rev. T. S. Oandans of Hibbing, Minnesota

After two years and three months of faithful service as pastor of the First Methodist church of La Crosse, Eighth and King streets, Rev. Louis Magin has accepted a call to the pastorate of the Walker Methodist church of Minneapolis. Rev. Magin will preach his farewell sermon in this city next Sunday and will then take up his duties in the new field. The appointment to the Minneapolis church, one of the largest in that city, is a promotion which is truly merited by the La Crosse divine who has demonstrated his ability and singleness of purpose during his two years of work as pastor of this congregation.

Rev. Magin received his appointment from the Northern Minnesota conference which closed its sessions in Minneapolis yesterday and he was recommended for the place by Bishop Quayle. He also received a call to the pastorate of a church in Evanston, Ill., from the Rock River conference which has been in session in Chicago, but he had already accepted the Minneapolis position.

During Rev. Magin's administration in the First Methodist church of this city, more than 100 members have been added to the congregation. The finances of the church have been marked by perfect harmony and carried through with marked success. Rev. Magin and his family, although followed by the best wishes of his congregation, will be greatly missed in this city. He has always taken great interest in the affairs of the municipality and was an influential factor in the local pastors' union.

The pastorate of the La Crosse First Methodist church will be filled after next Sunday by Rev. T. S. Oandans of Hibbing, Minn., who received his appointment at the Minneapolis conference. Rev. Oandans bears the reputation of a conscientious and able clergyman.

MEN'S LEAGUE IN FAVOR OF WILSON

If straws indicate the direction of the wind, there is at least a strong breeze in the membership of the Presbyterian church toward Woodrow Wilson, democratic candidate for president. There is something of a gust toward Taft and a draft in the direction of the big bull moose, while a mere zephyr indicates a movement for Debs. Chafin was left almost undisturbed, and contrary currents entangled the woman's suffrage question. The physical demonstration of these airy sentiments was given in a straw vote of the Men's league which held a meeting and supper in the parlors of the church last Thursday evening. The vote which was taken during the supper resulted as follows:

Wilson 30, Taft 18, Roosevelt 16, Debs 7, Chafin 2.

There were 56 votes for equal suffrage and 34 against it. The opposition however refused to commit themselves to a standing vote when requested to do so by one of the women of the congregation.

WISCONSIN GREEKS READY TO FIGHT

FOND DU LAC, Wis., Oct. 7.—George Panterlis, 21, a Greek, left today for Menasha to join other Greeks who will join countrymen at Chicago and offer their services to the Greek consul in connection with the pending war of the Balkans against Turkey. About 100 Fond du Lac Greeks are members of the Pan-Helenic union and will likely leave for Greece in the event of war.

WAUKESHA MAN IS KILLED BY TRAIN

WAUKESHA, Wis., Oct. 7.—August Konock, 59 years old, for many years a resident of this city, was instantly killed Sunday morning at the Chicago, Milwaukee and St. Paul crossing when struck by train No. 24. According to witnesses of the tragedy, Konock started across the tracks and did not hear the approaching train. He was thrown fifty feet and his body was badly mangled.

RHEUMATISM'S CURE AT LAST IS FOUND

Well Known Newspaper Man From Pacific Coast Makes Positive Statement After Thorough Investigation of a Seattle Man's Remarkable Preparation.

Special.

Minneapolis, Minn., Oct. 7.—That a positive and permanent cure for Rheumatism has been found in Sulphurro, the new Liquid Compound of Sulphur, originated by C. M. C. Stewart of Seattle, Wash., is the startling declaration made by F. W. Strang, for many years connected with the Twin City newspapers, but now engaged in newspaper work at Seattle.

Mr. Strang has just completed a most thorough and exhaustive investigation of the new medicine and its work, and is now ready to declare to the world that Sulphurro is doing all and more than its friends have heretofore claimed for it. Starting in Seattle, Mr. Strang has traveled all over the Pacific Coast States and British Columbia, visiting not only the important cities, but the remote sections as well, personally investigating and verifying reports of cases cured.

The first case investigated, that of Mrs. F. J. Mueller, wife of a German Lutheran minister living at Bothell, near Seattle, who was cured not only of a most severe case of rheumatism, but total blindness, due to rheumatism as well, resulted in the remarkable story published in these columns recently. Next Mr. Strang visited in turn Tacoma, Portland, Spokane, San Francisco, Oakland, Sacramento, Los Angeles and San Diego, and in each of these cities found cases even more wonderful. Prominent business and professional men, and women notable in social life willingly told him of their experience with Sulphurro and from deep down in their hearts thanked Mr. Stewart for delivering them from lives of torture and suffering.

THOUSANDS GIVEN NEW MEDICINE FREE

How an Army of Sufferers Besieged Stewart Home to Obtain Healing, Health-giving Balm. By F. W. Strang.

Passing through one of the fashionable residence sections of Seattle one morning some months ago my curiosity was aroused by the sight of several hundred people standing in line in front of a large apartment building. Being a newspaper man I could not resist the temptation to investigate, so I asked one of the number what the gathering meant. I was told that a Mr. C. M. C. Stewart had discovered a cure for Rheumatism and other ailments (the people called it "Liquid Sulphur") and was giving it free to all who came for it.

I talked with many in the waiting line, and so earnest were their expressions of faith in the new medicine, and in the man, that I determined to see this Mr. Stewart. My efforts to see him that day were futile, for I found hallways and parlors packed to the limit with anxious sufferers.

Long Line Waiting for Sulphurro.

Day after day I called, and saw the same long line patiently waiting. Some of the most prominent and wealthy people of the city, who drove up in their automobiles, alighted and took their places in line.

I also saw street cars, crowded to the limit, stop at the nearest corner, and almost every passenger get off and join the throng. This, the conductor told me, had been a frequent occurrence for months, adding that the medicine must be doing wonderful work, for he had watched people come out on crutches, and then he saw the same persons hop off the car later without aid.

I kept up a quiet investigation, and, finally, at the suggestion of the managing editor, got an evening appointment with Mr. Stewart, for the purpose of obtaining a "story." I found Mr. Stewart a genial, pleasant man, earnest and sincere in every word, and with a manner that carried conviction right from the start. I learned that Mr. Stewart had been a druggist and pharmaceutical chemist for more than twenty years. Long ago he noticed how Nature made use of Sulphur as a purifier and cleanser and how effective were the fumes of Sulphur in the destruction of disease germs.

Then he began working to obtain a chemical combination that would reduce sulphur into liquid form, so that it might be absorbed into the blood, and there purify and refresh the system as the burning sulphur purged the sick room of its contagion. After long experimenting he was successful, the result being a beautifully pure, amber-toned fluid, of which he first made up in his own home. So successful was it there that friends and neighbors came for the new medicine. The word spread so rapidly that hundreds came in a single day. The line at the door became a veritable army.

One man in this line particularly had attracted my attention. His twisted and stiffened limbs and hands made him truly an object of pity. I watched him week after week fairly drag himself to Mr. Stewarts home for a supply of the new curative.

Former St. Paul Man Cured.

I saw this same man a few months after walking with the aid of one crutch and a cane; a little later with a heavy cane alone, and the last time I saw him in the Sulphurro offices a few weeks ago he carried a light walking stick, just for style. He gave me his card and the name and address of friends in St. Paul, with the request that I see them and tell them of his present condition. This man was formerly a resident of St. Paul, and left here twelve years ago a hopeless cripple, as he thought.

In San Francisco the pitiful case of Mr. S. L. Thompson, 2282 Mission street, whose grateful acknowledgment of Sulphurro's good work appeared in this paper recently, has attracted wide attention. And in the same city Mr. Noe, circulation manager of The Post, added his enthusiastic statement of how Sulphurro, in exactly ten days, cured him completely of a terrible severe attack of Rheumatism, showing the entries in his diary to verify it.

Across the bay in Oakland I learned of the case of the mother-in-law of a prominent young newspaper man. This poor soul, with limbs drawn up nearly double and knee joints swollen and perfectly stiff, was helping herself about the house with the aid of chairs when Sulphurro found her. After six weeks' treatment I was informed by her daughter she was sleeping with her limbs perfectly straight for the first time in years.

I took dinner with her later, and while she was not entirely cured, her condition was so much improved that life had taken on a brighter hue, and she was confident of Sulphurro's being eventually the victor.

The first case I investigated in Los Angeles was that of a Mr. Humpert, manager of the Santa Fe warehouse, who suffered tortures with Rheumatism in his feet and lower limbs, at times so badly that he could not leave his bed. He was given a bottle of Sulphurro by the president of a wholesale drug house. Mr. Humpert's great faith in sulphur as a blood purifier led him to give it a trial, but in a novel manner.

Sulphurro Bath for Rheumatism.

"Following a severe attack one night," said Mr. Humpert, "I put my feet in the foot bath and kept them there nearly four hours, adding hot water and more Sulphurro from time to time. In the morning they looked like a pair of boiled lobsters, but I felt 500 per cent better. I then followed directions in the booklet, and in less than a week my rheumatism was entirely gone."

I continued my search through the smaller cities of California and the results were the same everywhere, the medicine apparently never failing where directions were followed.

Coming North again I proceeded to Vancouver and Victoria, in British Columbia I found the Canadians fully as enthusiastic over Sulphurro as their American neighbors. At a famous health resort whose hot springs are the Mecca for rheumatic sufferers from both sides of the line, I found nearly every patient with a bottle of Sulphurro. Each sufferer takes his bottle of Sulphurro with him as he goes to the springs to drink the water, adding the regular dose of Sulphurro.

The bookkeeper of this noted resort was himself cured of Rheumatism by taking Sulphurro, after going about on crutches for many months, and now Sulphurro is a part of the regular course of treatment at the resort.

Some of Spokane's most prominent citizens have given ther testimonials in the form of signed letters, with permission to publish. Sulphurro met with a warm reception, and had a strong sale there.

At Oaksdale, near Spokane, I met probably Sulphurro's oldest patient in the person of dear old "Grandma" McCoy, founder of the town, and beloved by everybody. "Grandma" McCoy was visiting relatives in Spokane the first time I called in Oaksdale, but her daughter-in-law told me how the sprightly octogenarian had been cured of her Rheumatism and how she was insisting that everybody in the prosperous little town take it, no matter what the ailment.

Relief to Many in Minnesota.

And so the story goes, all through Indaho, Montana and North Dakota. Coming to Minnesota I find scores of cures. In Minneapolis, St. Paul, Duluth and over the line in parts of Wisconsin, I found Sulphurro doing its wonderful work. A number of persons on the Pacific coast had given me a list of relatives and friends in the cities named to whom they had sent or recommended Sulphurro, with a request to call on them.

I have had time to see only a few, so far, but among these I found the president of one of the largest corporations in this section, a judge of the district court, the wife of a prominent newspaper manager, and several state officials and state employes. I have before me a letter from a man in Paris, to whom Sulphurro was introduced by a prominent Minneapolis wholesaler while visiting in the French capital.

This Parisian goes into exact details of his case, with the thoroughness of the European and the statement is indeed flattering to Sulphurro. I have also a letter from the second vice-president of one of America's largest corporations with offices in every city of the union, which ought to convince the most skeptical. Sulphurro cured both him and his wife of Rheumatism and it was through him that one of the most prominent business men of Minneapolis was cured of the same trouble.

Nearly every state in the Union and almost every country in Europe is represented in the list of over 10,000 names to which I was given access in the offices of the manufacturers of Sulphurro in Seattle.

And Rheumatism is not the only ailment reached by Sulphurro. It seems to take a keen delight in going after diseases difficult to cure. I found scores of remarkable Eczema cases along with other skin, blood and stomach affections.

In telling of my investigations many names must necessarily be omitted for the reason that C. M. C. Stewart Sulphur Company never publishes a name or testimonial without consent. Any interested persons, however, can get any desired information and a copy of the Sulphurro booklet by writing the company at 71 Columbia St., Seattle.

Forty-eight thousand bottles of Sulphurro, in 50-cent and $1 sizes, have been distributed among the wholesale and retail druggists of St. Paul, Minneapolis, Duluth and Superior, as well as to other points in the Northwest during the last month.

Other sections of the United States are clamoring for Sulphurro, but must await their turn. Sulphurro, from a business viewpoint has been the big surprise of the drug trade, for no other medicine has ever taken such a firm hold on the public in so short a time. Without publicity, other than in the Pacific coast newspapers, it is being sold in every state in the Union, and has been sent by friends and beneficiaries to almost every civilized country.

The Candidates Today

Republican—President Taft continued his motoring trip, visiting Brattleboro, Williamstown and Manchester, Vt.

Democratic—Governor Wilson was enroute across Nebraska and Colorado to Denver.

Progressive — Colonel Roosevelt was scheduled to leave this afternoon for Detroit on a middle western trip.

Prohibitionist—Eugene W. Chafin attended a mass meeting of the Y. M. C. A. in Chicago.

Socialist—Eugene V. Debs was in Paterson, N. J.

* * * *

NEW YORK, Oct. 7.—Back at his regular job as contributing editor, Colonel Roosevelt took time from his duties to confer with a number of advisers at the Outlook Saturday. The progressive candidate would not discuss his experiences at Washington, but he was plainly well pleased. He said that he would clear up some important correspondence, dictate some editorials, get his political callers out of the way as early as possible so that he might have the afternoon to himself. The colonel will confer with Governor Johnson, his running mate, tomorrow, according to present plans.

OMAHA, Neb., Oct. 7.—In two speeches from his automobile in the street of South Omaha Saturday, Governor Wilson, addressing a total of 5,000 or 6,000 workmen from the Cudahy, Swift, Armour and Morris packing houses, declared for a department of labor. He said the democratic party had positively endorsed the plan in its platform and that the democratic house has already passed a bill creating such a department. "And I want to say," he declared, "that if the democratic party breaks its promises to the rank and file of the people of the country, I hope it will never be pput in office again."

The candidate said the good of the workingman meant the good of the nation, because nine-tenths of the people are working people. He said: "I don't ask you to vote for me on the 5th of November. I ask you to vote as you think—for the party and party leaders you think can best do what you want done. If you vote that way, you vote as Americans and I am perfectly willing to accept your verdict."

WILSON ON THE TARIFF

Governor Wilson's position on the tariff is so clear and well defined that it merits the closest study of every earnest citizen. For example, he said in his speech of acceptance:

"The revision should begin with the schedules which have been most obviously used to kill competition and to raise prices in the United States, arbitrarily and without regard to the prices pertaining elsewhere in the markets in the world; and it should before it is finished or intermitted be extended to every item in every schedule which affords any opportunity for monopoly, for special advantage to limited groups of beneficiaries, or for subsidized control of any kind in the markets or the enterprises of the country; until special favors of every sort shall have been absolutely withdrawn and every part of our laws of taxation shall have been transformed from a system of governmental patronage into a system of just and reasonable charges which shall fall where they will create the least burden.

"When we shall have done that, we can fix questions of revenue and of business adjustment in a new spirit and with clear minds. We shall then be partners with all the business men of the country and a day of freer, more stable prosperity shall have dawned."

Nothing can be clearer than that Governor Wilson has given the subject of tariff revision close and intelligent study. He has avoided the reactionary attitude of the Taft republicans, and has put to shame the disingenuous quibbling of the third-term candidate in the discussion of this important issue of the campaign. He has left nothing to inference but has clearly and honestly stated his position.

The American people who have so long been the victims of repudiations of platform pledges regarding the revisions of the tariff, will find Governor Wilson's frank and clean cut statement refreshing and inspiring.

THE DISEASE CALLED VAGRANCY

New York state is planning to provide a farm for the education and reformation of tramps and vagrants. Already Governor Dix has approved a site of 821 acres near Poughkeepsie for the proposed farm, authorized by the legislation of 1911.

This is the first adoption in the United States of the plan which has proved successful in Great Britain, Switzerland, Belgium and Germany. The colony is to be placed under the control of an unsalaried board of seven managers to be appointed by the governor. This board appoints a superintendent and a general staff of employes and establishes the rules and regulations. It is planned to use the labor of the inmates as far as possible for the construction and improvement of the colony. Sentences will be for eighteen months for the first offense and two years for other offenses. It is provided that no person shall be committed who shall satisfy the court that he supports himself through lawful employment. This is to prevent the detention as vagrants of workmen temporarily out of employment.

While no other state has an institution of this kind, Wisconsin has a law by which the state industrial commission is empowered to provide industrial or agricultural training for vagrants. As this statute has been in force only a short time it is too early to judge of its effects. Both the New York and the Wisconsin experiments, however, point the way to a new and better method of dealing with the social disease called vagrancy.

The commission appointed in Michigan by the legislature of 1909 to investigate minor offenses in Michigan suggested a farm colony, not specifically for tramps, but for tramps, drunkards and minor offenders generally. It was brought out in the report that the herding of all kinds of prisoners in the atmosphere of moral miasma which is present too often in the average jail could be prevented by placing the less hardened on a state farm. The idea of providing healthful, outdoor work for prisoners already is being worked out at Jackson and Ionia, two of the prisons in Michigan. There is no reason why the plan should not be extended to include vagrants and drunkards, a class that more than any other needs the invigorating influence of fresh air and steady work.

SHALL WE LET THE HIDE GO WITH THE TAIL

The essential thing to remember in the gubernatorial election in Wisconsin is that to re-elect Governor McGovern means the continuance in this state of a governmental policy based upon the theory that government is primarily for individuals rather than for property, and the election of his opponent means a resumption of the old idea that government is for property rather than for people.

Judge Karel is frankly hostile to what he calls "government by commission," which translated means that he is opposed to every one of the so-called "reform" laws that were passed in the process of wresting the state capitol from the railroads and other big corporations and restoring it to the men and women of the commonwealth.

Men who believe in the progressive theory of government as expressed in the laws that have made life easier for the great mass of people are not likely to permit their disagreement with any specific law to impel them to turn the government over to one who, if he can, will in the process of relieving them from that specific law deprive them of a score of important laws which they strongly favor.

Quips and Cranks and Wanton Wiles

The Country to the Town

I.

Gay the gems you wear at night—
A thousand facets, all one light!
Rich the robes you don by day—
One glory, though your heart isgray,
I see your shining strands of hair;
Gold, much gold, is tangled there.
But I have seen, I have seen
The silver daisies light the green,
Have shared the splendors manifold
That are but sought with cowslip gold,
The brilliants strewn on forest floors—
Is not my realm rich as yours?
And the Town said, "Proudly my days go by,"
But the Country made answer, "Queenlier I!"

II.

Many pleasures throng your parks
Between the magic dawns and darks,
Wherefore should you heed the hurts
Of children crying at your skirts?
Pomp of a great King's Parliament,
A great Queen's Court, your pride has blent.
But I have known, I have known
The white Moon on her mountain throne;
Have heard the children laugh to see
The Sun-King's summer revelry,
The pageant of the purpling moors—
Is not my lot high as yours?
And the Town said, "Gaily my days go by,"
And the Country made answer, "Happier I!"

—S. Gertrude Ford in Westminster Gazette.

Real Money in Sight

While traveling through the west, a man lost a valuable dog, and immediately proceeded to the office of the Hustler's Review in the town where he was stopping. Entering abruptly, he said to the editor: "I've lost a dog. I'd like to have you insert this ad for me."

"Seventy-five dollars reward for the return of a French bulldog answering to the name of Darwin. Last seen on Turner's road."

"We're just going to press," said the editor, "but we'll manage to hold the edition for your ad."

After returning to the hotel, the owner of the dog decided it might be best to add to his advertisement, "No questions asked." He returned to the office to find the place entirely deserted save for a red haired youth, who sat gazing intently out of the window. "Where is everybody?" he asked.

"Gone to hut th' dawg," replied the lad, without removing his gaze from the distant fields.

Her Ambition

Dr. Lyman Abbott, who opposes votes for women, was praising, on a southern steamer, a young Vassar girl.

"She delighted me," he said, "in a chat I had with her yesterday at tea. We talked poets, we talked about the new morality and the militant suffragette, and finally I said quizzically:

"'And what, may I ask, is the height of your ambition?'

"'Six foot, two,' she answered unhesitatingly, 'and he's the best first baseman Yalevard's had for seventeen years.'"—Judge.

Adam's Mistake

Eve had just come from the wood, where she had gathered unto herself a fine new costume of autumn leaves.

"How do you like my new dress, Adam?" 'she said, striking an attitude before him.

"It's a peach," said Adam, admiringly.

"No, dear, it's a maple," returned Eve.

It was about this time that it began to be rumored that women have no sense of humor.—Lippincott's.

His System

The manager of a theatrical company playing a "one night stand" in Texas was talking to the hotel proprietor regarding the prospects for business and had been assured they were good, says the Kansas City Star.

Then he asked: "What was the last show you had here?"

The landlord thought for a moment, and, turning to the clerk, said: "Say, Fred, what's the name on those trunks upstairs?"

OLD-TIME REMEDY DARKENS THE HAIR

Gives Color, Lustre to Faded and Gray Hair—Dandruff Quickly Removed

For generations Sage and Sulphur have been used for hair and scalp troubles. Almost everyone knows the value of such a combination for keeping the hair a good even color, for curing dandruff, itching scalp and falling hair, and for promoting the growth of the hair. Years ago the only way to get a Hair Tonic of this kind was to make it in the home, which was troublesome and not always satisfactory. Nowadays, almost any up-to-date druggist can supply his patrons with a ready-to-use product, skillfully prepared in perfectly equipped laboratories.

An ideal preparation of this sort is Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Hair Remedy, in which Sage and Sulphur are combined with other valuable remedies for scalp troubles and thin, weak hair that is losing its color or coming out. After using this remedy for a few days, you will notice the color gradually coming back, your scalp will feel better, the dandruff will soon be gone, and in less than a month's time there will be a wonderful difference in your hair.

Don't neglect your hair if it is full of dandruff, losing its color or coming out. Get a fifty cent bottle of Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur from your druggist, and see what a few days' treatment will do for you. All druggists sell it, under guarantee that the money will be refunded if the remedy is not exactly as represented.

The old darkey emphatically refused the raise and when his boss asked him why, he answered:

"It's like dis, Mister John. When I loses a day from work now I kin count mah money; but if you gib me a raise, an' I loses a day, I won't know how much I'se got comin' tuh me."—Judge.

CHAPTER XIV.
Billy, Billy Everywhere.

Bartlett nodded. He had been watching Henrietta through half-lazy, half-closed lids, leaning against a fallen log. Somehow out there in the coolness and sweetness of the summer night, in the open country, with only the drumming of the insects and the shrill clamor of frogs to break the silence, nothing seemed to matter, to be worth struggling for. He felt that he hardly cared what was happening in his absence, back there in the hot, crowded, dirty city. A few more millions added to the useless many he already owned, what did it matter? What amount could buy the night, the peace and sweetness and content? He glanced at the Watermelon and felt no triumph in the thought that this was Wednesday and so far not a paper had been received, not a letter sent to spoil his plans. He wondered lazily that he had gone to the bother of planning the small, petty intrigue of the small, petty city, like dogs snarling over a worm-eaten bone. How trivial it all was!

"You're right, General," said he, watching the play of Henrietta's thin white hands in the lamp light, as she and Billy arranged the evening meal. "A man's not a man in the city—nothing but a dirty, money-grabbing proposition. Dollars and cents, dollars and cents, the only reason of his being."

"I know," agreed Henrietta, nodding. "I sometimes wonder why it was so arranged—the world, you know. Why couldn't love, courage, honor have been made the medium of exchange, the most vital necessity of life? Every one has to have money, so every one has to struggle for it. Why couldn't things have been started differently?"

"Potatoes, two kisses a peck," suggested the Watermelon.

"Three," said Bartlett, "if the purchaser is young and pretty. A smile would be enough, if she were old and wrinkled and unwed."

"A motor-car would probably necessitate a wedding," said the general.

"No, no, no," protested Henrietta. "How silly! You don't understand me at all."

"I would hate to be a clerk at a bargain sale," said the Watermelon, pilfering a cracker from the box Billy held.

"Yes," agreed Bartlett, "think of the microbes—"

"Microbes?" asked Billy who had not been following the conversation. 'Where?"

"In kisses, Billy," said the general. "I should think you would have found it out by this time. Everybody you kiss—"

"I never kiss anybody," protested Billy, blushing delightfully.

"Father used to say—" began the Watermelon.

"Look here," interrupted Bartlett, "that father of yours was a minister, you say. I vow he could know nothing about this subject."

"He married more people than you have," said the Watermelon.

"Yes," said Henrietta kindly, "he must have known all about it. Do tell us what he said."

"He used to say that kissing was just the reverse of poker—"

"Poker," cried Bartlett. "No wonder your father left the ministry."

"It says in the papers that your father was a policeman," declared the general.

"A policeman of souls," said Henrietta softly.

The general waved the sentiment aside as immaterial. "How could he have been a policeman and a minister?"

"I can't say," answered the Watermelon, and turned to help Billy with a sardine can as the best way out of a tight place.

"How is kissing the reverse of poker?" asked Henrietta, always amused by the Reverend Mr. Batchelor's remarks.

'A pair would beat a royal flush," replied the Watermelon.

"Surely," persisted the general, "if your father were a minister—"

The Watermelon looked up from the key of the tin he was laboriously turning and glanced gently at the general, his woman's eyes amused and pitying, the expression they always wore for the general.

"Why, you see that is just what I have always fancied. He used to preach and have a church—but if the papers say he was a cop, he probably was."

"It's a wise child that knows his own father," said Henrietta. "Come to supper everybody."

Bartlett spread the filmy paper napkin on his knees and taking the plate Henrietta handed him, balanced it on his lap with great nicety. He was so sure that the Watermelon was William Hargrave Batchelor that it never occurred to him to doubt it. There were the cards, the monogram on the automobile and the general to vouch for it. The papers were a bit wrong.

Supper over, the general conceived the sudden inspiration of tinkering a while with the cars. Alphonse stood by to assist and the others wandered off down the road before turning in for the night.

Billy and the Watermelon soon drifted away by themselves up a tiny cow lane, fragrant with sweetbrier. They wandered up it side by side, like two children, neither saying a thing, content to be together. At the end of the lane, they leaned for a while on the pasture bars. The sultriness of the earlier part of the evening had passed. The thunder was less ominous and only sheet lightning, low on the horizon, was visible. A breeze, cool and sweet, whispered by. The fireflies danced in gay little flashes of light among the shadows.

The two stood side by side, their elbows on the top rail, their hands before them. They said nothing. There was nothing to say, just the night and they two, alone, among the sweetbriers and the fireflies.

Now and then Billy sighed, unconsciously and happily. A great silence had enwrapped Billy for the last two days, a silence in which she was content to dream and in which words seemed superfluous and uncalled for. She wondered that Henrietta could talk so much. What was there to say? Billy had never been in love. She wondered vaguely if the enfolding content, the longing for solitude and her own thoughts were forerunners of approaching death. The good die young, and Billy felt that she was content to go, to drift away into the eternal peace of the after life. She was not of an analytical disposition and she only knew that she was happy, causelessly happy, and did not ask the reason. The Watermelon stood so closely beside her that once when he turned she could smell the tobacco on his breath. She wanted to rub her head on his shoulder like a kitten, and wondered if she were growing weak-minded.

Boils, Rashes, Pimples, Etc.

When the blood becomes infected with any unhealthy humor the effect is shown by boils, pimples, and rashes or eruptions on the skin. Humors get into the blood usually because of an inactive condition of the eliminative members. Thus unhealthy matter is left in the system to sour and ferment and be absorbed into the circulation. Remove these humors and no skin trouble can exist, because its very source is then removed. Boils, rashes, pimples, etc. can never be cured through the application of external medicines, because such treatment can have no possible effect on the blood; the most to be obtained from such measures is temporary relief. S. S. S. CURES all skin affections because it purifies the blood. It goes down into the circulation and cleanses it of every particle of unhealthy matter. Then the blood exercises its normal function of supplying nourishment to the cuticle instead of irritating it with a fiery humor. If you have any skin trouble you could not do better than purify your blood with S. S. S. It does not "patch up" it cures. Book on Skin Diseases and any medical advice free.

An Easy One

A young woman who teaches a class in one of the public schools of Pittsburg was instructing her youngsters in the geography of their country.

"Does any one," she asked, "know where Denver is?"

"Sure!" answered a small towhead boy. "It's in de Western league."

The answer appealed to her sense of humor, and when she went home that night she started to tell about it. Her brother, a rising lawyer, was in the room, and was listening, with his mind on something else.

"I asked the children if any of them knew where Denver was," she began, "and only one of them undertook to say—"

Her brother broke in on her.

"Anybody, almost, ought to know that," he said; "Denver is in second place."

HAIR STOPS FALLING, DANDRUFF DISAPPEARS—25 CENT "DANDERINE"

Save your Hair! Beautify it! Invigorate your scalp! Danderine grows hair and we can prove it.

Try as you will, after an application of Danderine, you cannot find a single trace of dandruff or a loose or falling hair and your scalp will not itch, but what will please you most, will be after a few weeks' use, when you will actually see new hair, fine and downy at first—yes—but really new hair—growing all over the scalp.

A little Danderine now will immediately double the beauty of your hair. No difference how dull, faded, brittle and scraggy, just moisten a cloth with Danderine and carefully draw it through your hair, taking one small strand at a time. The effect is immediate and amazing—your hair will be light, fluffy and wavy and have an appearance of abundance; an incomparable lustre, softness and luxuriance, the beauty and shimmer of true hair health.

Get a 25 cent bottle of Knowlton's Danderine from any drug store or toilet counter, and prove to yourself tonight—now—that your hair is as pretty and soft as any—that it has been neglected or injured by careless treatment—thats all.

TOMAH, WIS.

Recently J. L. Martin, one of the construction engineers of the Chicago, Milwaukee and St. Paul railroad, made a trip to Tunnel City and has sent a force of nine engineers who are at work surveying the south side of the track, the object being to lower the grade, straighten the curve and build a double track through Tunnel Hill. If the plans are accepted, it is expected that the work will be commenced at once and be completed by spring.

The New Lisbon high school was defeated by the Tomah team on the high school campus Saturday forenoon. The score was 74 to 0. This score was the same as La Crosse made on us about a year ago. The New Lisbon team showed lack of coaching, they played defensive most of the time, only having the ball in their possession but a few times. The high school will play Baraboo next Saturday afternoon at Tomah.

Tomah fair which takes place on the 8th, 9th and 10th of this month, promises to eclipse any fair held here in former years. The season is now far advanced that a very large display of cereals, fruit and vegetables are assured. There will be keen competition in the various breeds of cattle, swine and sheep, whilst some carloads of blooded stock are entered by outsiders. The races will all be for "blood' as the entries are confined to Monroe county horses, besides the running and trotting races. There will also be races run by mules and dogs. Our local base ball team will play the Tomah Indian team on Wednesday afternoon and Thursday Warrens baseball team crosses bats with Ridgeville. Everybody should patronize the good old fashioned fair and at least take one day off. We hope to be favored with lovely October weather.

Miss Frances Johnson who has spent the past summer with her sister, Mrs. Ella Brobeck, in Colorado, has returned home and accepted a position to teach in the government Indian school at Keshena, Wis. She was joined here by her brother, Ray, who holds a railroad position at Ladd, Ill.

Mr. and Mrs. Jay Kent arrived here Thursday from the state of Washington, where Mr. Kent is engaged as an architect. Mrs. Kent will be remembered here as Miss Ruth Stevens and held a position as teacher in the Tomah schools. They expect to make an extended visit at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. P. Stevens.

The eighth grade and freshmen classes enjoyed a dance in McCaul's hall Saturday evening. Misses Clark and Bice chaperoned.

Miss Nellie Rogers of New Lisbon, spent Sunday as the guest of Doris Simonson.

Mr. Herman Neuendorf and Miss Gusta Reetz are to be married at the Indian Creek Lutheran church on Wednesday, Oct. 9. They will commence housekeeping on the old Neuendorf homestead.

Mrs. T. R. Talbot who has been spending the past two weeks visiting friends and relatives here, returned to her home in Sparta Friday.

A number of the ladies of our city expect to attend the Federation of Women's clubs which will be in session in Janesville, Oct. 8, 9 and 10.

The Women's Civic Improvement club held a reception and six o'clock banquet in the Business Men's club rooms for the teachers of the high school, also the grade teachers. The club plans to give a series of dances Friday evenings in McCaul's hall.

Robt. McMullen of Seattle, Wash., arrived here Thursday and will make an extended visit with his relatives. He is a brother of the late William McCullen.

Mr. Ira Hatch is fitting the old Goodyear building with a new outfit of billiard and pool tables, the former occupant, Mr. L. N. Burt, having sold his outfit to a party at Wyeville.

Mr. W. C. Homermiller has leased his store building, which is situated north of the city hall, to Mr. H. B. Rudle of Bloomer, Wis., who will open a short order restaurant. This will be a great benefit to the public as there has been no place of that kind in that part of the city for some time.

Mrs. J. L. Brahmer, Kilbourn Ave., entertained Mrs. J. E. Wallace and Mrs. I. Weisner of La Crosse during the past week.

Mr. and Mrs. Victor Mistele who have been visiting relatives at Kendall and Hustler, returned home Saturday.

Mrs. William Harvey of Milwaukee, visited friends in Tomah over Sunday.

BOWLERS LINE UP FOR FRESH START

Painters and Nelsons to Open the Season in Game Tomorrow Night

HANDICAP PLAN IS ADOPTED

Race for Supremacy This Year to Be Hot from the Start to the Finish

All preliminary arrangements have been completed and the Merchants' bowling league of the north side will inaugurate the 1912-1913 bowling season tomorrow evening at the Combination bowling alleys. The Painters, last year's champions, and the Nelsons, runners up, will meet in the first games of the year and some great battles are looked for when these two high class teams compete with each other.

As much interest is being taken in bowling this year, the indications are that this season will be the banner year in the history of bowling in La Crosse. Although the rules and regulations governing the league games remain practically the same as those of last year a few changes have been made in order to lend even more interest to the race for the championship.

The tournament this year will be a handicap tourney with eight strong clubs competing. In other cities the tourneys are almost all handicap affairs and for this reason a tournament of this kind was arranged for La Crosse as it is almost certain to make the race for the supremacy a hot one from start to finish.

The Painters, Nelsons, Peerless and Old Styles, the teams which finished in the first four positions last year, will not be given a handicap when they play, but the teams which they meet will be given a handicap in proportion to their strength and this handicap has been figured out so that no matter which clubs meet they will be evenly matched. The other four teams in the league will receive handicaps.

Scores made in the first seven weeks' bowling will be taken as a basis for the handicaps to be given the teams and these handicaps will be changed every seven weeks. The scores made during the entire season beginning with the first games will count in the season's percentage. The rules and regulations adopted last year will remain unchanged except any member of any team who is not present before the fifth frame of the first game of the set to be bowled by his team will not be allowed to bowl the first game.

The schedule for the first week's bowling is as follows:

Tuesday, October, 8, Nelsons vs. Painters.

Wednesday, October 9, Combinations vs. Old Styles.

Thursday, October 10, Round Bars vs. Nationals.

Friday, October 11, Premiums vs. Peerless.

Following are the captains of the teams:

Painters, Voves.
Nelsons, R. Roth.
Peerless, Freng.
Old Styles, Whittenberg.
Combinations, Fridgen.
Round Bars, Nekola.
Nationals, W. McDonald.

Tell Quadruple Alliance They Will Be Allowed to Gain Nothing in the Struggle

LONDON, Oct. 7.—The powers were practically agreed upon the form of communications to be sent to Turkey and the lesser Balkan states with a view to settling their differences today. It was understood the communications would be presented today. The diplomats considered the outlook much improved.

Will Gain Nothing

Greece, Bulgaria, Servia and Montenegro will be warned that, even if they go to war with Turkey and win, the powers will not permit them to gain anything by it. Turkey will be asked to give a larger measure of self government than at present to Macedonia and Albania, though not the absolute autonomy which the quadruple alliance demanded. Turkey has already intimated its willingness to do this.

War Reported Averted

LONDON, Oct. 7.—The powers' efforts to prevent war between Turkey and the Balkan quadruple alliance is believed to have been successful, the Daily Mail's correspondent in Constantinople telegraphed today.

Greeks Attack Turks

BERLIN, Oct. 7.—A steamship with many Turkish passengers aboard has been stormed by Greeks in the Piraeus, several men were badly beaten and a number of women dragged from the vessel and mistreated, according to the Turkish embassy here today.

BUDAPEST, Oct. 7.—With the latest break in the Balkan war clouds an unexpected danger developed for the Bulgarian governmet today, accoring to advices from Servia. BAKER TO TALK NATIONAL ISSUES

Mayor of Cleveland First Democratic Speaker to Appear in La Crosse

Newton B. Baker, mayor of Cleveland, Ohio, who won national fame by his fight against the Taggart machine in the Ohio state convention and who headed a Wilson delegation to the national convention at Baltimore as a result of his victory over the stalwart faction of Ohio democracy, will be the first national democratic speaker in La Crosse in this campaign. He will discuss national issues in a speech in the old Y. M. C. A. building on King street, Wednesday evening. Chairman E. J. Kneen of the county committee and Secretary A. H. Schubert spent the entire day in the democratic headquarters today preparing for the big rally which will open the campaign in this city. Because of the strong support of the members of the committees it is expected that a large crowd will attend the rally.

INSANE SPOUSE KILLS

FOLLOWS WIFE TO APARTMENT OF WOMAN FRIEND AND THERE SHOOTS BOTH WOMEN AND SELF

CALGARY, Alta., Oct. 7.—Two are dead and one fatally injured as the result of John C. Davis going suddenly insane. Davis entered the apartment of his wife's friend, where she had sought protection, and after shooting his wife dead, put a bullet into her friend, Miss Mildred Dixon. He then turned the revolver on himself, dying later. Miss Dixon is in a critical condition in the hospital.

For three weeks Davis, who is a wealthy real estate broker, formerly of Spokane, Wash., has been begging his wife to return and live with him, but she refused. Mrs. Davis was shot in the abdomen and through both legs. Davis was shot through the brain. Miss Dixon was shot through the side.

"Pape's Diapepsin" settles sour, upset stomachs in five minutes
Do some foods you eat hit back—taste good, but work badly; ferment into stubborn lumps and cause a sick, sour, gassy stomach? Now, Mr. or Mrs. Dyspsptic jot this down: Pape's Diapepsin digests everything, leaving nothing to sour and upset you. There never was anything so safely quick, so certainly effective. No difference how badly your stomach is disordered you will get happy relief in five minutes, but what pleases you most is that it strengthens and regulates your stomach so you can eat your favorite foods without fear.
Most remedies give you relief sometimes—they are slow, but not sure. Diapepsin is quick, positive and puts your stomach in a healthy condition so the misery won't come back.
You feel different as soon as Diapepsin comes in contact with the stomach—distress just vanishes—your stomach gets sweet, no gases, no belching, no eructations of undigested food, your head clears and you feel fine.
Go now, make the best investment you ever made by getting a large fifty cent case of Pape's Diapepsin from any drug store. You realize in five minutes how needless it is to suffer from indigestion, dyspepsia or any stomach disorder.

SAYS TAFT USES THREATS IN FIGHT

Wilson Declares Hilles Is Asking Employers to Use Jobs as Clubs Over Workers for Them

ON BOARD WILSON'S SPECIAL CAR, COLORADO SPRINGS, Colo., Oct. 7.—That Chairman Hilles and the national republican committee are urging employers to call on their employes to vote for Taft under threat that they may lose their jobs if Wilson is elected, is the indirect charge made by Governor Wilson today, through the issuance of a copy of a letter signed by Hilles, said to be one of many the republican chairman is sending out. The letter follows:

"If the November election results in the choice of a democratic congress and democratic president, new tariff bills will be enacted at once. In other words, destructive democratic tariff measures, such as President Taft vetoed at the last session, will become laws. Only one thing can prevent this, and that is a protest vote on the part of the American workingman. They must choose between a high standard of living and that of the underpaid European workingmen.

"Do your employes understand that this defines the difference between the republican and the democratic party not only as far as your product is concerned, but as pertaining to all other products of American labor

"If you will kindly send us a list of your employes who are voters, with postoffice addresses, each one will be asked personally to vote for Taft and Sherman, and the republican candidate for congress, and told the reason why.

"I trust you will favor me with this list at the earliest possible date.

"Respectfully yours,
"CHARLES D. HILLES,
"Chairman."

When Wilson was elected governor of New Jersey he led a campaign which put on the statute books the Geran corrupt practices, prohibiting the circulation of such political literature as the Hilles letter, which he received yesterday from a friend, whose name he withheld.

PARLIAMENT STORMY

BIG FIGHT BETWEEN LIBERALS AND CONSERVATIVES ON WITH OPENING OF ENGLISH LEGISLATURE

LONDON, Oct. 7.—Parliament will convene late today for what promises to be the most tempestuous session in years. Three matters of vital importance are to be disposed of —Irish home rule, dis-establishment of the church of England in Wales, and election reform. The liberal administration supports all these measures. The conservatives will fight them tooth and nail.

The church of England is part of the aristocracy's machinery for retention of power and the proposal to rob it of its official standing in Wales is as offensive to the ruling class there as home rule is to the "ruling class" in Ireland. The election reform bill seeks to abolish the system by which the aristocrats have multiplied the number of their own votes about ten times and deprived the working classes of approximately 1,000,000 of theirs.

The liberal administration's position is precarious. Counting its own members of the house of commons, the forty-two labor members of the house of commons, the frty-two labor members and the seventy-six Irish, it has a majority of 110, but the labor men may saccde at any time and the Irish are only interested in keeping the administration in office until home rule is assured.

The man who shoots at random never hits the target.

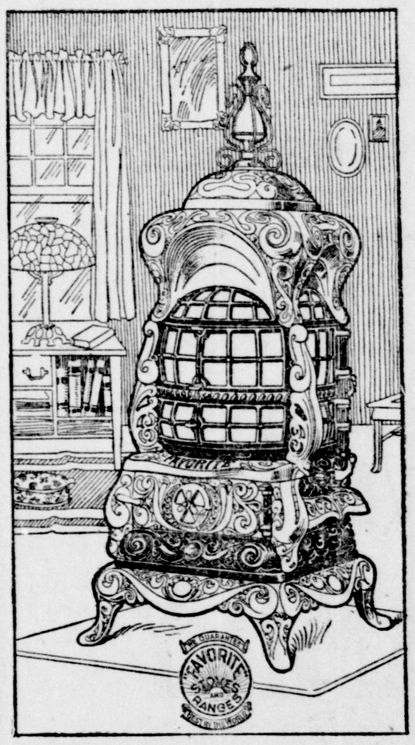
Perfection in Little Things Have Made the Favorite



Some manufacturers throw their stoves and ranges together. They don't care how they make them — want a showy outside appearance, in order to attract attention and sell the goods.
The makers of the Favorite could build their stoves that way —but they don't.
They have spent over sixty years climbing towards perfection in stove and range making, and we think they have now reached pretty close to the mark—that's why we handle the Favorite Line.
The law protects you in the food you eat, but your own common sense is your only safeguard in buying stoves and ranges, and the confidence you have in the dealer from whom you buy.
Come and see our Favorites. You'll be pleased with the beauty of design and thorough workmanshp. After you have looked them over carefully and compared them with other makes they'll be your Favorites too.
You will know what we mean when we say: Favorite means Perfection when applied to stoves and ranges. It means over sixty years of the very best endeavor in stove and range making.

I. W. W. LEADERS ASK FOR BAIL

Attorneys for Ettor, Giovannitti and Caruso Request Release of Their Clients

SALEM, Mass., Oct. 7.—Attorneys for the Ettor-Giovannitti-Caruso defense went before Judge Quinn in the superior court sitting here today to acsk for the release of their clients on bail. The trial began last Monday. Three jurors only were secured out of a panel of 350 talesmen, the largest ever summoned in Essex county. Difficulty in obtaining a jury and injustice of longer keeping in jail the prisoners who have been locked up since January 30, were the arguments in which defense attorneys based their plea for bail. District Attorney Attwill, who is prosecuting the cases, did not oppose the request.

Massachusetts law puts it within the jurisdiction of the presiding judge to grant bail even to a defendant charged with murder. Such rulings in murder cases, however, have been exceedingly rare. Defendants charged with accessory to murder have frequently been admitted to bail in Massachusetts.

BECKER TRIAL IS ON IN NEW YORK

Extra Session of Criminal Court Called Over Police Scandal Begins

EMPANEL GRAFT GRAND JURY

Start Selection of Men Who Will Investigate Relations of Police and Crooks

NEW YORK, Oct. 7.—With Justice John W. Goff presiding, the extraordinary term of the criminal branch of the supreme court got down to business here today. Although the trial of Police Lieutenant Becker for the murder of Gambler Herman Rosenthal was the chief event in the program, not less important was the empanelling of the special grand jury which will probe the relations between the police and the underworld, the result of whose work is expected to be the indictment of many high police officials, politicians and gamblers. Selection of the grand jury was the first duty of the day.

Every person admitted to the small section of the room given over to spectators was carefully scrutinized.

Justice Goff will hold night sessions of his court in order to expedite the trial.

District Attorney Whitman appeared with Frank Moss, his chief assistant. The defense was in charge of John F. McIntyre, one of the leaders of the criminal branch of the bar.

Whitman admitted today that the murder of "Big Jack" Zelig Saturday night removed one of his most important witnesses, but he insisted that his death would not materially weaken the case against Police Lieutenant Becker.

McIntyre declared that the death of Zelig was a blow to the defense. He said that Zelig would have contradicted "Bald Jack" Rose's statement that he applied to Zelig for gunmen to kill Rosenthal at Becker's request.

Justice Goff denied the motion of Attorney McIntyre for a postponement because of the illness of John W. Hart, one of six attorneys for the defense of Becker.

A motion by District Attorney Whitman to have Becker, who was indicted jointly with the gunmen, tried separately was granted by Justice Goff and the defense's motion to dismiss the indictment was denied. The work of selecting the jury was begun just prior to the luncheon recess. It is said it will take several days to secure the needed ewelve men.

BRYAN OR WILSON TO SPEAK HERE

National Committee Promises Kneen One of Two Big Democratic Orators for La Crosse

TO START FIGHT TOMORROW

C. L. Hood to Deliver First Speech of Year at Centennial Hall Rally

Assemblyman E. J. Kneen of Bangor, chairman of the democratic county committee, returned to the democratic headquarters today after a conference with the state central committee in Milwaukee and attending a meeting of the national campaign committee in Chicago yesterday. While in Milwaukee and Chicago Mr. Kneen arranged for several speakers who will deliver speeches in the seventh congressional district during the campaign. The national committee promised Mr. Kneen that either Woodrow Wilson or William Jennings Bryan will speak in La Crosse before election and several speakers, among whom is Judge J. C. Karel, were engaged from the state committee to talk on state issues in this county.

C. L. Hood, candidate for the assembly, will open the state campaign in La Crosse tomorrow night with a speech at the Centennial hall. Mr. Hood will speak again Thursday evening at Central hall on the north side.

A democratic rally will be held in Bangor tomorrow evening with W. N. Coffland, candidate for congress from the Seventh district, L. P. Benezet and W. F. Wolfe of La Crosse as the speakers of the evening. Mr. Coffland will discuss the national and congressional situation while Mr. Benezet and Mr. Wolfe will talk in the interests of Wilson's candidacy.

Mr. Kneen returned from Milwaukee today full of confidence that both national and state tickets would go democratic this year. He declared that if the organization throughout the state is in as good working order as that in Milwaukee, the democrats will carry the state by a considerable majority. J. J. Padesky took up his duties as assistant secretary in the democratic headquarters today.

OWEN WILL TOUR LA CROSSE COUNTY

Will Discuss State Issues in Five Addresses Beginning Thursday Morning

HE IS A POWERFUL SPEAKER

Bosshard to Accompany Candidate for Attorney General; La Follette Coming

The republican campaign in La Crosse county will be officially opened Thursday and Friday of this week, when Senator Walter Owen, Maiden Rock, Wis., candidate for attorney general, will deliver five addresses in the county.

According to announcement made at the republican headquarters this morning, Senator Owen will arrive in Onalaska about 10:30 o'clock Thursday morning over the Chicago, Burlington & Quincy railroad, and will be taken immediately to Woodmen hall, where he will deliver an address at 10:30 o'clock.

From Onalaska he will be taken to Bangor in an auto, at which place he will speak at 2 o'clock in the afternoon. The meeting at Bangor is to be held in the opera house. From there he will be escorted to West Salem for a meeting in Robert's hall at 8 o'clock in the evening.

Friday afternoon, October 11, at 2:30 o'clock, he will speak in Progressive League hall at Bangor and will close his tour of this county with a meeting in Woodmen hall at Mindoro at 8 o'clock Friday night.

In all probability the senator will be accompanied and introduced by one of the local candidates—most likely State Senator Otto Bosshard.

Mr. Owen is conceded to be one of the state's greatest public speakers and his knowledge of the many important questions facing the voters at this election is unlimited, due to his many years connection with legislation at Madison.

Chairman J. E. Higbee has made a personal request upon Senator Robert M. La Follette for a portion of his time for this county and it is expected that he will undoubtedly be in the city before the campaign closes.

In the event the senator finds it possible to enter this part of the state the local committee has an itinerary mapped out that will give practically every voter in the county an opportunity to hear him on the big issues.

The republicans are completely installed in their headquarters at 325 Main street and are preparing for one of the hottest campaigns ever held here. Before the campaign closes, they aver, they will have practically every man of state prominence in the county and many of national reputation.

Explosion of Gasoline Causes Fire; Author's Wife Saves Girl's Life

The handsome summer home of Hamlin Garland, the author, was practically destroyed by fire at six o'clock this morning.

Mr. Garland was forced to escape through a window in his pajamas, while Fern Fox, a domestic, whose attempt to light a gasoline stove caused the fire, was saved from death by the presence of mind of Mrs. Garland.

The girl rushed into Mrs. Garland's room wth her clothing aflame, and Mrs. Garland smothered the fire with blankets. While this was happening the gas tank exploded and the fire spread rapidly.

One of the great items of loss was the ruination of Mrs. Garland's splendid library.

ALDERMAN FRANK KOHN IS ATTACKED

A scene of havoc was created at the Jefferson hotel Saturday night when refusal on the part of Proprietor Frank Kohn to purchase a ham and a pair of shoes for ten cents, provoked John McDonald into sending a fusillade of chairs at the head of the alderman. Exercising almost unbelievable agility, the portly "city dad" side-stepped the flying missiles until McDonald's ammunition was exhausted, and then notified the police.

McDonald, who was just released from the county jail after serving a five months' sentence, was placed under arrest a few moments later. Police today declare that they are positive McDonald stole both the shoes and the ham. He will be arraigned both on a charge of larceny and assault of evidence can be produced to show that he committed theft.

Judge Edward Cronon arrived here last night after spending three days at the Eau Claire G. A. R. reunion in observance of the fiftieth anniversary of the battle of Corinth. It was at the battle of Corinth that Judge Cronon lost his arm.

The following is an extract from the Eau Claire Leader:

"Comrade Edward Cronon of Company I, Eighth regiment, La Crosse, gave greetings to Eau Claire, thanking committees and citizens. He recited a poem, 'High Tide at Gettysburg,' with dramatic effect and declared it had patriotism to please all although written by a confederate soldier. He also recommended that there be a reunion of the 8th regiment, and for one he heartily recommended this city as the meeting place. In Eau Claire and nearby places, Mr. Cronon said were the most of the survivors. He added that he had attended many reunions but that the best of all were in this city."

Judge Cronon today highly commended the hospitality of the members of the G. A. R. and citizens of Eau Claire.

Chicago Grain Review

CHICAGO, Oct. 7.—Heavy northwest receipts, easier cables and large world's shipments were overshadowing influences in the wheat market today. Prices began declining early and continued during the later trading at slightly lower figures.

May corn showed a steadiness throughout the day that was not shared by the December.

The oats futures made downward steps from the start. Oats trade was of very small volume. Price movements being in sympathy with the other pits.

Provisions held steady at a material advance over Saturday's closing.

HIGHS BEAT THE NORMALS 15 TO 0

Seiler's Team Outplays the Heavier Normal Bunch and Wins by Good Margin

NORMAL LINE IS HEAVIER

Wiebrecht and Strum Make Touchdowns; Quarterback Kicks Field Goal

The high school football team defeated the normal school team last Saturday afternoon by a score of 15 to 0. This is the second time in as many years that the highs have won from the pedagogues, the score last year being 23 to 0. The game was slow on account of the hot weather which made it necessary for the men to take time out to regain their wind and tired them more than if the day were cold. The feature of the event was the yelling of the high school rooters. They turned out in full force and they cheered their warriors continuously and between halves tried to establish a record for continuous yelling.

The two teams entered the game with the intention of winning and the way the opposing players scrapped to enable their team to win was what made the game interesting all the way through. This accounts for the fact that several men were laid out which also made the game slower than an ordinary game would have been. The high school men displayed a better knowledge of open football than the normals did for they pulled off several clever forward passes and shift plays which fooled the normal men considerably. Although the normal line outweighed the high forwards, Seiler's men put up a good game and held their heavier opponents.

The entire high school line played a stronger game than their opponents did, the tackles, Dickens and McCahan, often breaking through and spilling up plays before they were well started. Fay and Zeisler, at the end positions, did some excellent defensive work, breaking up the interference before the play had gained much ground. The normals found the high school center weak and were able to get their downs through there often and especially in the third quarter when they played the high a very even game. The high school back field was the chief source of ground gaining as they carried the ball around the end and through tackle for long consistent gains. Strum piloted the team in the steady and cool style that gives confidence a very strong game. He was laid out several times but went back into the game and played harder than ever. Garder and Marshall always proved ground gainers when called on to carry the ball and on the defense were always there to stop anyone that happened to get around or through the line.

Hyde played the star game for the normal school. The normal team has not had the advantage the high players have for they have a number of men on their team who are playing their first season of football and have not as yet learned the things which make successful football players.

The game opened with the normals kicking off to Strum who advanced 10 yards before being downed. The highs carried the ball down the field with consistent gains by Strum and Wiebrecht. The normals gained the ball on punts several times but lost it again on not being able to make their downs. By a beautifully executed forward pass by Strum to Fay, the highs carried the ball to the normal's eight yard line. Strum then went over center for the first touchdown of the game. He failed to kick goal.

Strum kicked off to Downey who returned the ball 15 yards. After several plays the normals lost the ball on a fumble and it was recovered by Strum. On the exchange of punts and a tackle around play by McCahan the highs brought the ball again within striking distance of the normal's goal Strum went back for a drop kick but the normals expected a trick play and did not rush in which gave Strum time to place a beautiful drop kick between the posts from the 20 yard line. Score: Highs 9; Normals 0.

In the second half Jacobson received the kick off and advanced 20 yards. The normals took a brace in this quarter and played the highs a very even game often gaining their downs and showing some real flashes of shifty football. Neither team scored in the third quarter.

The last touchdown of the game came in the last quarter when Renner took the ball into the normal's territory on a forward pass. Several plays by McCahan and Strum the highs advanced the ball to the normals' 10 yard line where Wiebrecht went over for a touch down. Strum failed at goal. Score: Highs 15; Normals 0.

With about half a minute to play the ball was again kicked off but time was called while the runner was advancing with the ball. The lineup:

Normal	Position	Highs
W. McGlynn	left guard	Noem
Wolf	right guard	Hill
Roberts, capt.	center	Gunderson
Bryan	right tackle	Dickens
Hyde	right end	Fay, Renner
Downey	quarter back	Strum
Griffin	left half	Garder
Lawton	right half	Wiebrecht Capt.
Jacobson	full back	Marshall

Touchdown: Strum, Wiebrecht; goal from field, Strum; referee, Moore; umpire, Spence.

ALL READY FOR WORLD'S SERIES

Final Work-outs Given Each Team Today in Preparation for Game Tomorrow

SEAT SALE OPENS HEAVY

2,000 Fans in Line at Polo Grounds for Tickets Before Daylight This Morning

NEW YORK, Oct. 7.—With the exception of a few minor details, everything is in readiness for the opening of the World's series tomorrow afternoon at the Polo grounds. The Giants are scheduled to meet the Highlanders this afternoon in a practice game and the Red Sox were to come to New York from Boston this afternoon, after working out at Fenway park during the forenoon.

Seat Sale Big

The sale of seats, which opened today, was expected to be unprecedented. The first men in line arrived at the Polo grounds Sunday at midnight. Before daylight this morning about 2,000 fans and two fanettes were in line. Only upper grand stand seats and boxes were to be sold today, making a total of between four and five thousand pasteboards. The real big sale will come tomorrow.

Manager McGraw expected to pull his team together for a real warming up heat this afternoon. Mathewson, Tesreau and Marquard on whom will fall the burden of the big series, were carded to divide the innings evenly in the contest with the Highlanders. The regular lineup was to be used and an attempt made to get into the swing that won the pennant for New York.

The Red Sox were expected to arrive in New York this evening. Manager Stahl figured that a good night's rest in a hotel was worth more to his men than an afternoon's workout and a nap on the sleeping car. The Red Sox come with a settled knowledge of their lineup tomorrow afternoon. It is practically certain that Joe Wood will pitch the opening game, which means that Cady will be behind the bat.

Red Sox Practice

BOSTON, Mass., Oct. 7.—Behind closed gates at Fenway park this forenoon, Jake Stahl and his American league champion Red Sox had their final tuning up before going to New York tomorrow to grapple with the Giants for the world's title. From President McAleer down, through Manager Stahl and the players to Mascott Jerry McCarthy, confidence of victory was supreme today.

The squad left on the 1 o'clock train this afternoon for New York, accompanied by the greatest crowd of rooters, whoever followed a Boston team into the enemy's bailiwick.

HUGH BEDIENT MAY GET A CHANCE TO PITCH FOR RED SOX IN WORLD'S SERIES

Hugh Bedient.

Manager Stahl of Boston plans on using Joe Wood in the box at least twice and perhaps three times in the world's series. Collins and Hall will each pitch a game. Unless the series goes the full seven games it is unlikely that any of the other Boston twirlers will get a chance to show what they can do. Hugh Bedient has pitched in forty games this year and has a pitcher's average of .625. O'Brien has pitched in 35 games and has a record of .586. It would seem that if a fourth twirler is to be used by the Red Sox, Bedient should be the man. He is a right-hander.

WANT CHANCE TO MANAGE THE REDS

CHICAGO, Oct. 7.—That an offer has been made to Frank L. Chance, manager of the Chicago Cubs, to lead the Cincinnati Reds next season, became known today. Garry Hermann made him an offer last week after a consultation with President Murphy of the Cubs.

Chance said he was bound by a promise made when he sold his tenth interest in the Cubs to return to his old team next year if he is wanted. He said he would say nothing of Herrmann's offer until he learned positively whether the Cubs wanted to offer him a contract for the next season.

PREDICT VICTORY FOR WHITE SOX

CHICAGO, Oct. 7.—Baseball dopesters looking into the city championship series between the Cubs and the White Sox are nearly unanimous in handing the victory to the American league team today. The only predictions of Cub victories are being written by members of the National league aggregation who are signing special articles in the newspapers. The interest in the games between the two Chicago teams which begin tomorrow is almost as great among the fans within a radius of fifty miles of here as that between the Giants and Red Sox.

DENVER WINS TWO FROM A. A. CHAMPS

DENVER, Colo., Oct. 7.—With two games already won by Denver, the local champions of the Western league, and the Minneapolis American association winners rested today. The third game of the post season series will be played here tomorrow and is expected to bring out the largest crowd in Denver baseball history. The fans have gone wild over the showing of the Grizzlies yesterday, when they grabbed the game 4 to 2 in the eleventh inning. Manager Cantillon of Minneapolis, insists that it is the worst kind of luck that has given Denver the first two games. He is confident of winning the series.

AREBACH DENIES HE SHOT FISHER

BALDWIN, Mich., Oct. 7.—O. M. Arebach of Chicago, pleaded not guilty before a justice of the peace on Saturday to the charge of murdering Harry W. Fisher, a Chicago promoter, while hunting near here a few weeks ago. His examination was set for Oct. 10.

MARINETTE CHIEF SUSPENDED

MARINETTE, Wis., Oct. 7.—The police commission suspended John Cook, chief of police, for thirty days on a charge of having pulled a revolver on Sheriff A. E. Schwittay in Hotel Marinette on April 2, after Schwittay had published an article in his paper attacking Cook's honesty.

BRAGG WINS RACE DE PALMA HURT

Mercedes Driver Crashes Into Bragg's Car on the Last Lap and Goes Into Ditch

MILWAUKEE, Wis., Oct. 7.—Caleb Bragg won the Grand Prix.

Out of a swirling cloud of dust and smoke a giant red Fiat leaped like a famished wolf unleashed across the line that marked the end of a 410 mile competition for America's greatest honors in motor car racing.

De Palma Hurt

Relph De Palma, winner of the Vanderbilt cup race on Wednesday, hero of more than a hundred gruelling automobile speed contests, lies in Trinity hospital with a probable fracture of the left hip and suffering from internal injuries, which render his recovery doubtful.

In the same hospital lies his mechanician, Thomas Alley of Indianapolis, with a fractured left shoulder and other slight injuries. His condition is not serious.

Speed Demons Crash

Both of these men came face to face with death in the last lap of the Grand Prix yesterday afternoon, when, in a terrific burst of speed in a demoniacal effort to land the grand prize, De Palma's Mercedes giant speed monster struck squarely from behind the Fiat of Caleb Bragg.

De Palma's Mercedes bolted, swerved and both axles snapped like pipe stems.

In a moment famous driver and his mechanician were in a ditch, and the chugging Mercedes was on its side, a wreck.

DOMER WANTS BOUT WITH KID CUTLER

Floyd Domer, light heavyweight champion wrestler of Illinois, was in the city yesterday and while he was here he issued a challenge to Charles Cutler to meet him in a finish match. Domer is willing to meet Cutler anywhere and he is eager to get a match with him.

While Cutler was appearing at the Interstate fair here two weeks ago Domer wrestled with him and he stayed with him fifteen minutes. The Illinois champion now wants to meet him in a finish match as he is certain that he has a good chance to win. Domer weighs 190 pounds and he is in good condition now. He is returning to his home in Polo, Ill.
